

SAM LATE NIGHTS

Fri, 17 Mar 2023 | 6–10pm | SAM at Tanjong Pagar Distripark

Free admission to SB2022 and all programmes

Create

The Engine Room, Level 1
6–9pm

A Fan of Natasha

Beat the heat by designing your very own paper fan inspired by Natasha!

My Chiming Creature

Create your own creatures inspired by Haegue Yang's sculpture duo with found objects and bells.

Photo

The Engine Room, Level 1
6–9pm

Say 'Natasha!' Photobooth

Capture your time here at SAM at our Natasha photobooth.

Lifestyle

Container Bay, Level 1
6–10pm

The Night Shift by Balestier Market Collective

Grab a drink and prata from our live station, and bask in the good vibes of the port.

Tour

Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1
7–7.45pm

Singapore Biennale Highlights by Nida Ghouse

Explore selected works in the Singapore Biennale with Co-Artistic Director, Nida Ghouse.

Artwork Activation

Container Bay, Level 1
7.15–7.45pm

Wayang Spaceship by Ming Wong

Travel through a time portal on the Wayang Spaceship by artist Ming Wong.

Reading

Pink Containers, Level 3
8–9pm
Bookings required

subTEXT x SAM: Anything but Natasha

In the face of fresh rhythms and reflections on inclusivity, local poets interpret their own idea of Natasha in this iteration of subTEXT.

Music

Container Bay, Level 1
8–8.45pm

There is a whale inside my synthesiser by Aya Metwalli

In this performance, Egyptian singer-songwriter, composer and sound artist Aya Metwalli will be singing along with the LYRA-8; the unique organismic analogue synthesizer designed by Vlad Kreimer.

9–9.45pm

Alicia DC, Mary Sue x Farizi, and rhyu

Look forward to a captivating night of original music by local talents.

SAMILY FUNDAY

Sat, 18 Mar 2023 | 1–5pm | SAM at Tanjong Pagar Distripark

Free admission to SB2022 and all programmes

Access	Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1 11am and 12pm Bookings required	Singapore Biennale Highlights Tour with Sign Language Interpretation Learn about the Singapore Biennale on this guided tour for the Deaf & Hard-of-Hearing community. Singapore Sign Language interpretation will be provided.
Create	The Engine Room, Level 1 1–5pm	My Chiming Creature Create your own creatures inspired by Haegue Yang's sculpture duo with found objects and bells.  A Fan of Natasha Beat the heat by designing your very own paper fan inspired by Natasha!
Photo	The Engine Room, Level 1 1–5pm	Say 'Natasha'! Photobooth Capture your time here at SAM at our Natasha photobooth.
Talk	Pink Containers, Level 1 1–2pm Bookings required	Imagining... Child's Play by Malaeb and Superhero Me Join Malaeb and Superhero Me as they reflect on their motivations, experiences, and challenges in developing socially purposeful programmes, while retaining the novelty of imagination in their causes.
Tour	Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1 2–2.45pm	Docent Tour Let our docents take you on a journey to get to know Natasha.
Workshop	Gallery, Level 5 2–4pm Bookings required	The Sensing Salon: Reading with Echo I Let The Sensing Salon discuss their approach to reading and introduce the basic structure of the Tarot and the traditional interpretations of each card.
	Pink Containers, Level 3 2–5pm Bookings required	Voice in the Dark: Writing Characters Into Life by Nabilah Said What worlds can you write into existence? Create your own unique characters inspired by works at SAM in this workshop led by playwright Nabilah Said.
Youth Insights	Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1 2.30pm 4.30pm	Ciel Balansag Calma on Algahest Join Ciel, Winner of the Articulation Prize Singapore 2023, as she shares her insights into Algahest by Pratchaya Phinthong, a work featured in the Singapore Biennale 2022.
Talk	Pink Containers, Level 3 3–4pm	Where is the Art? featuring Paschal Daantos Berry and Lim Chye Hong Paschal and Chye share their experiences about programming for the needs of artists, participants, partners, and communities through interdisciplinary, cross cultural, collaborative and socially engaged processes.
Tour	Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1 4–4.45pm	Singapore Biennale Highlights of Korean Artists by Maya West Explore the Korean highlights for Singapore Biennale with writer and translator, Maya West, who has worked directly and indirectly with selected Korean artists and collaborators for Natasha.

*Programmes may be subject to change. For the latest updates and registration details, visit singaporebiennale.org/programmes-events.

SAM LATE NIGHTS

Sat, 18 Mar 2023 | 6–10pm | SAM at Tanjong Pagar Distripark

Free admission to SB2022 and all programmes

Create

The Engine Room, Level 1
6–9pm

A Fan of Natasha

Beat the heat by designing your very own paper fan inspired by Natasha!

My Chiming Creature

Create your own creatures inspired by Haegue Yang's sculpture duo with found objects and bells.

Photo

The Engine Room, Level 1
6–9pm

Say 'Natasha!' Photobooth

Capture your time here at SAM at our Natasha photobooth.

Lifestyle

Container Bay, Level 1
6–10pm

The Night Shift by Balestier Market Collective

Grab a drink and prata from our live station, and bask in the good vibes of the port.

Tours

Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1
7–7.45pm

Singapore Biennale Highlights by Binna Choi

Explore selected works in the Singapore Biennale with Co-Artistic Director, Binna Choi.

Artwork Activation

Container Bay, Level 1
7.15–7.45pm

Wayang Spaceship by Ming Wong

Travel through a time portal on the Wayang Spaceship by artist Ming Wong.

Music

Container Bay, Level 1
8–8.45pm

There is a whale inside my synthesiser by Aya Metwalli

In this performance, Egyptian singer-songwriter, composer and sound artist Aya Metwalli will be singing along with the LYRA-8; the unique organismic analogue synthesizer designed by Vlad Kreimer.

9–9.45pm

Aisyah Aziz, Alicia DC, and Mary Sue x Farizi

Look forward to a captivating night of original music by local talents.

SAMILY FUNDAY

Sun, 19 Mar 2023 | 1–5pm | SAM at Tanjong Pagar Distripark

Free admission to SB2022 and all programmes

Create

The Engine Room, Level 1
1–5pm

My Chiming Creature

Create your own creatures inspired by Haegue Yang's sculpture duo with found objects and bells.

A Fan of Natasha

Beat the heat by designing your very own paper fan inspired by Natasha!

Tour

Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1
2–2.45pm

Docent Tour

Let our docents take you on a journey to get to know Natasha.

Workshop

Gallery, Level 5
2–4pm
Bookings required

The Sensing Salon: Reading with Echo II

The Sensing Salon will introduce the Echo Tarot Deck, its process and development, and will use a preliminary deck to perform a collective reading.

Performance Lecture

The Main Deck, Level 3
3–6pm
Bookings required

Slideshow Party – A women's evening of Sharing art and other provocations with Erika Tan and Adele Tan

Join curator Adele Tan, artist Erika Tan and invited guests for an afternoon of making present, visible and audible the experiences, networks and art practices of women practitioners in and from Singapore.

Tour

Meet at Gallery Reception, Level 1
4–4.45pm

Singapore Biennale Highlights by Ala Younis

Explore selected works in the Singapore Biennale with Co-Artistic Director, Ala Younis.